Dear Friends -

I have been very busy throughout the month of June with my favorite kind of ministerial work (NOT!): administration. There are always a lot of loose ends to tie up from the year just ending and planning for the coming year.

I would especially like to thank the 100+ of you who attended the parish meetings earlier this month. The meetings were enlightening and invigorating. The general tone was so positive and the love manifested for this ministry and mission of the Center was palpable. There were lots of good ideas shared (and not just for the remote future, but for the coming year as well.) We are blessed to have an engaged and active permanent community and I look forward to working more closely with you in the next year, I am busily processing all the notes from the meetings and will have a report from this first round completed sometime in July.

I will be on vacation from June 26-July 17. During those weeks the Sisters will also be coming and going (but largely away). Fr. James, our new Associate Pastor will show up during the 1st week of July and he and Fr. Don will hold down the fort during my absence.

I hope the summer is going well for you and that you are getting time away and rest as well.

Peace,

Fr. Bart op.
