FR. ALBERT FELICE-PACE, O.P. RETIREMENT

At the end of June, Fr. Albert Felice-Pace, O.P. will be retiring after 55 years of service. Fr. Albert served as Director of St. Thomas More Catholic Newman Center from 1993-2003. He celebrated Masses and was a presence on campus on September 11, 2001 when the students organized a vigil at the Newman Center. During his tenure he helped raise funds to remodel parts of the chapel and installed an elevator at the center so everyone, including disabled members of the community, could participate in the life of the Church. Most importantly, he touched the lives of so many people in his 10-years of service to St. Thomas More Catholic Newman Center. This wonderful community brought him so much joy in seeing the interactions and mentoring between students, faculty, and older members of the Newman Center. Father still speaks fondly of his time at U of A and feels blessed to have served such a wonderful community. At his current and final post at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, the St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Newman Center will be throwing a retirement party for him on April 18. If you would like to send Fr. Albert any well wishes, the address is 4765 Brussels St., Las Vegas, NV 89119. If you would like to send him your comments online or request an invitation to attend his retirement party in Las Vegas, please send an email to info@unlvnewman.com with your address and an invitation will be sent.
