SUMMER MUSINGS

Here are a few of the things going on at Newman during the summer lull:

Construction. Walt is working on electrical and interior work in one of the apartments.

Other Summer Projects. The storage area in Green Hall has been cleaned! Old mattresses and furnishings have been removed. Johnny has been cleaning the floor in the storage area. Thank you!

Lobby Area -Work on removal of the carpet in the lobby is scheduled for the 1st week of August. Thank you to the Sustaining Board! The carpet will be replaced with Cotto tile.

PILGRIMAGE TO TURKEY AND ROME

Bishop Gerald Kicanas is leading a pilgrimage to Turkey and Rome to walk in the footsteps of Peter and Paul. The dates for the pilgrimage are October 26th - November 7th. There are a few places left for those who have not yet signed up. This pilgrimage will visit significant scriptural sites throughout Turkey and in Rome. The group will also participate in a Papal Audience while in Rome. If you are interested, please contact Mr. Ernie Nedder at (520) 838-2509 no later than August 1, 2015.

Don't miss out on this wonderful opportunity of a lifetime

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has a link to the daily readings which includes listening to the readings and a daily reflection. If you wish you may sign up for the free subscription.

The daily readings can be found at <http://usccb.org/bible/reading>.

DOMINICAN INSTITUTE OF STUDENT MINISTRIES (DISM)

Six of our student leaders will be traveling to Oakland on July 29-August 2 for the annual campus ministry leadership conference. The conference is sponsored by the Western Dominican Province and includes leaders from other West Coast Newman Centers. Students will have the opportunity for discussing ministries, liturgy, and planning. Please pray for our student leaders!
