Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

We walk with Jesus into Jerusalem... into days of praise, betrayal, a last supper, arrest, torture, and a death sentence. Not a very attractive week! So, why do we celebrate it year after year?! Isn't there enough darkness in our world already? Can't we just skip to the resurrection and the glory of Easter? After all.. we know this story... Why bring ourselves down each year?

Passion Sunday leading into Holy Week reveals the deep passion of a God who wants to share the depths of his love for his creation. God holds nothing back in loving us. He is willing to keep giving through humanity's rejection, disobedience, and refusal to open ourselves to his love. Our God will do whatever it takes to get our attention, and to turn us.... from hatred to mercy... death to life... and from sadness to resurrected joy.... which is transformative.

May our journey through, with, and in Him.... this Holy Week.... call from us something that is good, true, and beautiful. "O Lord, I do believe... Help my unbelief"

The Triduum: "The Three Great Days"

We invite you to share these important and dramatic liturgies with us at the St. Thomas More Newman Center. The Triduum celebrations of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday - usher in the great celebration of Easter. Each day begins with reflective morning prayer at 8am in the chapel and concludes with a powerful liturgy 'accenting' the 'raising of the pitch' of God's love in Jesus... played out 'Sacramentally' for our benefit and way forward.... Please join us! For more on the history of the Triduum please see our Lenten Resource Page on our website at:

www.UACatholic.org/Lent

We will celebrate a Communal Penance Service with a Liturgy of the Word Service and short reflection by one of our student ministers, an Examination of Conscience and the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation with one of several priests.

WHAT IS TENEBRAE?

At 8AM on the mornings of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Saturday, we gather in the chapel for prayer to chant the psalms of Matins and Lauds along with selected homilies from the Office of Readings to prepare for the evening liturgies of the Easter Triduum (Three Days). A candle is extinguished on the candelabra after each of the psalms and the community offers its Solemn Intercessions, calling upon God's mercy and love during this week called holy. We hope you'll join us for this ancient prayer service of the Church that is celebrated in the tradition of the Dominican Order.
