Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

No, it's not a joke... He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia! How ironic that this year Easter falls on April Fool's Day! A day known for pranks, tall tales, and any reason to create a laugh.... And, yet for we who believe... it is a day where the veil of darkness is shed, tombs fly open, and all that has been dammed up... is allowed to flow with the glory of a new spring.

Jesus Christ... God's incarnation in Word and Action... who really walked, preached, and healed among us... is Risen, and lives forever... with and in us!

This is no joke, and we are called to share the effects of his resurrection in to our lives and the lives of others.

How will we do this? How will we allow the forming efforts of our Lenten journey to shape our lives in the fifty days of Easter Glory? How will forgiveness and reconciliation in our lives and world shine brighter this Easter? How will greater compassion and regard of the those in and outside of our personal and global borders be a wider reality? How will an end to the separations of culture, race, gender, and a whole host of other 'pressing issues' sadly impacting our church, society, environment, and person... fade away.... in the light of Easter Glory? I don't know.. But, I do know and believe... that He's died, He's risen, and that He will come again! This is the promise and reality of 'God with us' always. And, my brothers and sisters....that is no joke! Amen! Alleluia!
