Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

There is nothing like a person who inspires us to good and proactive living. People in our lives who by their example call us to rise from “verdant pastures and dark valleys” to be witnesses of faith, hope, and love.

Their words are easy to hear, and they motivate to follow, do, and build a world that is beautiful, just, and worthy of praise.

Today's Gospel speaks of Jesus as the “Good Shepherd”, and as one who loves and protects those in his care. His voice is peaceful, healing, and recognizable... and, is always safe and provides shelter.

Christ is the ‘light’ that never dims... a ‘balm’ that never loses its ability to heal... a “love” that fills every crevice of the world and universe with peace and fulfillment.... And, leaves only a desire for more of God. “The Lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I shall want”

May we follow the voice of the Good Shepherd allowing our lives to rise, and be peacefully transformed by resurrected love.

St. Thomas More Newman Center
Parish Community:

It was a joy to visit last weekend. What a festive weekend with Spring Fling and the Easter Season. The latter proclaimed the message once again that Jesus is alive and risen—a needed message for renewal.

As you have heard the announcements of Dominican transitions this summer, I am grateful for Fr Thomas' loving service to you and forming many people in their faith with RCIA. I witnessed his contribution by a people filled with love, joy, and faith serving others.

I will also be transitioning. Please pray for me as I say goodbye to the Catholic Community at Stanford and San Francisco that I have served for six years. Also pray that I transition well from the mild climate of California to beautiful but hot Tucson.

I see so much life and potential in your Newman Community. It will be amazing to see that develop. To allow the Holy Spirit to help this develop takes focused effort. I am confident this is a value for Fr. John Paul. I also bring a desire and experience collaborating with teams. I have formed teams in technology, a guild of artists, and developed a spirituality of dying with grace.

In all these areas the key to GREAT collaboration is being rooted in Jesus Christ. I have seen students, by praying fifteen minutes a day, let go of the anxiety of trying to be perfect.
I have seen life-long Catholics come alive as they placed their trust in Jesus.

I want nothing more than for each of us to place the remainder of the year in God's loving hands and walk with Jesus. I look forward to seeing you soon—even if it will be the hottest time of the year! See you in July.

- Fr. Emmanuel
Taylor, O.P.
