Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

One of the greatest testimonies to someone that we respect is to imitate their example. People truly live on through the power of imitation.

The older I get I find myself laughing because aspects of my parents and other important mentors in my life keep breaking into my daily living.

I have caught myself saying, "Wow, I am beginning to sound more and more like my mom, or my dad. I guess their lessons did make a difference in my life... Their mantras of what to do, and not do..., and how to consider framing things has actually been a valuable treasure. A good example does make a difference, as does a bad one!

In today's Gospel Jesus commissions his disciples and tells them to go out into the whole world, and to baptize in the name of the living God; Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit.. and, to share the saving effects of his example with those whom we encounter.

We also celebrate Mother's Day this weekend. What a blessing it is to have these special women in our lives! Mothers, Grandmothers, Aunts, Godmothers, Guardians, and others... who have and continue to make God's love so real and meaningful. May the wisdom of these benevolent shepherds remain in us, and with us always. May the light of God's example shatter the darkness of hate, and give rise to hope and peace. Alleluia!
