Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

We celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity this weekend... God's inner-self revealed to us as:

The One who creates, The One who reconciles, and the One who makes us whole! Father, Son, and Holy Spirit! One God, not three! One God, three articulations, expressions, and movements!

How confusing, and yet how wonderful! The Holy Trinity expresses God always and everywhere! God with us in every stage of our existence and being. Trinity represents a God who accompanies his people in everything! Why is this important? I believe it is a reminder to us, that we are baptized into this profound reality, and love of God. So, we are called to be for one another sources of life, healing, and sustaining support. This is what it means to love deeply!

May we have the courage to call upon our God, thus finding that unifying love which always brings life, reconciliation, and sustaining peace. Amen!
