Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Everyone who belongs to the truth hears my voice”

Today is the final Sunday of our liturgical year, and we conclude.. with the Feast of Christ the King. Christ is the Sovereign of all that is created - on earth, in the cosmos, and the heavens themselves.

Today's Gospel brings us to Jesus standing before Pilate, the Roman Governor of that region, questioning Jesus about his status, authority, and power. Jesus is on trial for trying to heal humanity.... and in the process... upsets evil, cruelty, injustice, slavery, and hate. The governor asks Jesus if he is a King? Jesus responds that his kingdom and kingship - is about something greater, more authentic, healing, and true.... And, that anyone directed/dedicated to these things... hears his voice... and finds freedom and new life. Christ's kingship is about what is best for all creation, including humanity!

It calls forth the flourishing, and not the tearing down, and destruction of all life and dignity. It flows from the Spirit of God's own self... from which all creation was called forth into being.. and, is freed from the poison of the 'one' who only seeks to deceive.

Christ's Spirit has been given to us in Baptism, and is deepened whenever we participate in the Sacraments, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and in whatever 'truly' reflects God's love, truth, and stewardship in creation.

May we celebrate our participation in Christ's Kingdom by always announcing his saving benevolence in word and deed!

May God's resting Spirit, that is upon us... continue its anointing...as we prepare to enter Advent, and a New Liturgical Year! May St. Luke's Good News - light the way! Amen!
