To love God with our whole heart, mind, and soul... And, to love our neighbor, as we love ourself"

What a task to do this... and what an encounter to experience how this feels. To love God with our whole being means to let go of whatever is not necessary for living an authentic life.

God is the source and end of everything... so, to love God with all our heart, mind, and strength... is to receive all that we need, and more, for living in, and beyond this world. In today's Gospel the scribe asks Jesus "which is the greatest of all the sacred laws? And, Jesus responds with 'love the Lord your God above all, and with every fiber of your being' The scribe recognizes this to be true, and somehow picks up on Jesus's conviction, and embodiment of this law in responding. It is because of this encounter of Jesus's "enfleshing" of this law.... "that no one has the courage to ask him anymore questions!

In some ways I wonder, if the scribe was questioning Jesus's authority, or really seeking to know the truth? Regardless, he got the truth! In both a spoken word and a lived encounter.

When we allow ourselves to simply "take a deep breath" and to receive into our being... "the Spirit of the Living God" we discover the power of God's renewing love. This love helps us to 'reset' our worries and priorities, and to remember.... the Spirit of the Lord is upon me, and I have been anointed. Amen!
