Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Happy New Year, and continuing blessings upon our final days of the Christmas Season. I hope your holidays have been occasions for celebration and deep encounter. Our readings throughout this season draw us into the Spirit of God upon the Holy Family, and all touched by the birth of the Word-Made-Flesh -“God, who is with us.”

This “Spirit” warms/disturbs the hearts and souls of tired shepherds, curious star-gazers, patient prophets, and controlling/insecure rulers.

Lives are effected by the coming of the Prince of Peace! Peace can have an impact on us..... if we let it! Will we allow it..... to melt lives frozen by indifference? Or, disappointed by broken promises, and past mistakes?

Peace, if applied patiently.... with loving endurance, always pays off!

The Christmas Season ends not with the Feast of Wise Ones coming upon the baby Jesus in the manger, and presenting the gift of gold, frankincense, and myrrh... Our Christmas Feast liturgically concludes with an older Jesus coming to be baptized by his cousin John the Baptist in the River Jordan. So, let's keep this reality of “God with us” alive in our hearts a little longer!

May we strive towards the peaceful benefits promised to those willing to make God's presence known to all... in what we say, and do in 2019!

We have begun a new semester at the UofA! May we “bear down” upon God's Spirit, that is Upon us, and with us.... in all seasons, and semesters of life. May we allow the graces gained throughout our Advent and Christmas Days ... to stay with us, and strengthen us..... in every possible way..... towards the furthering of the Kingdom of God. Amen!
