Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Pull out into deep waters and lower your nets for a catch”

Jesus invites you and I into a relationship of loving trust.. It's a call to leave the shores and boundaries of fear and control, and to sail upon waters of life.. trusting that we will find the peace for which we are searching.

Jesus in today's Gospel simply gets in the boat, uninvited, of the fishermen and begins to teach the crowds.. God's grace-filled friendship “invades” the lives of these ‘fishers’ and asks them ‘ what are your hearts truly desiring? And, how deep are you willing to go to find it?

Minding the depths ... and encountering the impact of God's grace in our lives.... requires us to “be not afraid” and, to allow God to enter deeply into the compartments of our lives. Here Christ speaks to our hearts, and helps them to heal, renew, and reconcile.

May we be courageous in our journey with Christ into greater stewardship of the gifts that we have been given. May we drop our nets to where Jesus commands, and reap the benefits promised to those who have the will act with love.

This Sunday we are happy to announce the maiden journey of phase one of our Sound and Multimedia Project at Newman! As of late Friday night a new sound system resides in our Newman church, and it sounds amazing! A special thank you to The Moreno Foundation, The Bernabe Family, as well as many within our own community - for benefaction of this first part of our project. Your stewardship of Newman and its mission is very appreciated, and allows our dreams to become reality!

May the Spirit of the Lord, which is Upon us... continue to take us deeper into what it means to truly hear the Word of God, and to take it with us into all we say and do.
