Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Jesus turned around and walked through their midst”

It takes a lot of courage to turn around and to face adversity. It is not the first thought that comes to my mind, and it requires energy and a certain clarity of mind and heart to do.

Jesus speaks words of truth and challenge to his own hometown.... He invites them to “look harder” into how, and who God loves.

God’s love is not for the few, but for the many.... For small town folks, city folks, widows and their children, and for all that, and who... God has created.

When Jesus “turns around” in the stampeding cohort.... who intends to hurl him over a cliff.... He says, “No” to the fallacies of: undo force to solve problems; a mob mentality to expedite an opinion/view that is true, but not popular, and may require change, and needed disruption; and, to allow himself to be ‘the light’ in the world - that God’s presence among us is meant to be.

The Month of February celebrates “Black History Month”. As we celebrate the “real presence” of Christ in Word, Sacrament, and Community.... May we also remember the ‘Soulful’ contributions of our African American Sisters and Brothers..... who, as the old Spiritual says: “Have walked this far by faith.... Leaning on the Lord..Trusting in His Holy Word.. He’s never failed me yet.... Oh, Ho, Oh, Oh, Ho, Oh, Ho, Oh..... No, turning around... We’ve walk this far by faith! “

May the Spirit of the Lord, that is Upon Us... help us to ‘keep stepping’ forward, as well, as to courageously “turn around” when needed... and to walk where, and to what.... is truly good, and necessary... in building God’s kingdom of truth and love!
