Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Building Community is achieved when there exist a willingness to place the values of caring, listening, communicating, and forgiving.... at the heart of living together.

Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit upon his followers, after first wishing them peace, and the charge to reconcile. As we move into the close of the semester at the UofA.... May we pray for all those graduating this weekend! May we wish them well on their journeys forward into God's wider pastures.

May we also, remember our mothers... both living and deceased, and all those people who served in the role of "mother." May they be blessed and appreciated for who they are, and all that they mean to us.

May we continue to deepen our communal journey at Newman, and keep constructing the gift of Easter Peace. May we allow it to build into an anthem of 'resurrection' to all in our community and beyond.

May the efforts of this last school year... be infused with the courage to continue accompanying each other, and to step into the freedom of the Spirit, and to announce God's favor everywhere! Amen! Alleluia!
