Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

It's hard to believe that we are already over halfway through the month of January! The color green has returned to the sanctuary, and the first day of the Spring semester has commenced! It seems that 2020 is off to a rapid pace, and that we are getting dragged along with it!

Into this 'effervescence' we hear the voice of John the Baptist saying "Behold the Lamb of God! John speaks these words to himself, and others who are waiting for the emergence of "a messiah" the 'promised one' of God... one who will bring God's 'deliverance and healing' to a people awaiting freedom and peace. John has received God's revelation, and has been unfolding the promise through his call and preaching. He sees the 'promise in-fleshed in Jesus' and gives testimony of this to all who have hung on his every word.

Dr. Martin Luther King did the same thing in his time for a people and nation 'torn apart' by violence, racism, and a refusal to listen to God's song of freedom. In his preaching and activism he was constantly pointing our national 'conversation and action' to "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the SIN of the world!

How appropriate it is as we celebrate this national holiday weekend in honor of Dr. King's "Dream" during this Week of Christian Unity. May his "Dream" continue to echo from every valley and mountain... and, from every heart of both Christian and Non-Christian...

May the "light" which God has given to all nations... shatter any present darkness... nationally, globally, or personally... And, may the grace and peace of the 'Lamb of God' wrap us in the faith, hope, and love necessary.... to bring about a world of justice and peace.

Amen!

January reflection on our theme for this year: "Blessed" taken from Matthew's Gospel account of the Beatitudes

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

In his, "I Have A Dream" speech, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., quoted from the Prophet Amos 5:24, "we are not satisfied, and we will not be satisfied until justice rolls on like a river, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream". Repetitively, Dr. King pointed to what was not right and in a powerful crescendo began his hope of a place where justice and righteousness resound.

What does it mean to hunger and thirst for righteousness? It is to right what is wrong, not by power or violence, but to do as Jesus did; that is, to speak Truth! What in your world hungers and thirsts for righteousness? Truly, blessed are those who constantly hunger and thirst after righteousness, they will be satisfied! -Sr. Angelica

YVOTE PROJECT 2020

How do I make voting decisions?
How do we visualize our community, state, nation, world in the future?
How will we contribute toward our vision?
What are our shared, deepest, non-negotiable values that are our cornerstone?
How will we treat all persons, when we are at our best?

These questions can best be talked about when we take time to listen to one another! The Social Justice group invites you to an evening of active engagement that contributes to a deliberative conversation process

We will gather downstairs on Wednesday, January 22, 2020 at 7PM.
We welcome all and ask you to bring a friend!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings provide clear and inspiring reminders of the most fundamental aspect of our identity — that of servants of our most high and holy God, His modern-day disciples and stewards.

“It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.” IS 49:6

We have been called from the womb for the privilege of being God's servants. How does my daily life reflect this calling of stewardship, to put Jesus first in every aspect of my life?
