Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Get behind me Satan! Jesus yells to Peter. What a strong statement directed at someone who is only trying to care and protect. Has Jesus lost it? How is this reflective of the peace that Jesus always appears to uphold and to value?

As always, we need to put this into a wider context. Jesus has just asked to disciples, "Who do people say that I am? And, "Who do you say that I am? This is an important question to be answered by those who are being - exposed and formed - by Jesus and his mission to spread the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter responds with faith and conviction, "You are the Christ.. The Son of the living God" Jesus is pleased by this answer, and gives Peter a special role as leader of this rising faith community, and proceeds to share more about what his mission is going to involve.

The news is too much for Peter and the disciples, and Peter pulls Jesus aside and says, Don't do it! Jesus then raises his voice to get Peter and the disciples' attention, and calls them back upon the path and mission that he was sent to bring to fruition. "Get behind me! Or, in other words, "Follow me! Not, in what is comfortable, or always predictable. This is not always an easy task for those who get used to divorcing themselves from the challenges of following Christ.

May we be open to the Good Shepherd's lead, and formation in our lives. May our fear be a healthy response, that facilitates deeper growth, and not more paranoia and control. May the result be a greater intention to love in life, faith, and community.

In these active and unusual days of beginning of new semester at Newman, and the U of A.... May we take comfort in our new theme for the year "Fear is useless, what is needed is trust"

We love you, and hope to see soon. Please follow us online at UACATHOLIC.ORG for the latest updates.

Amen!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The grace of God is always available to us in abundance, if we simply ask God for it.

You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy, My soul clings fast to you; your right hand upholds me. Ps 63: 8-9

As faithful stewards we face our cross, our challenges with the assurance that God's abundant love will transform us, His right hand will uphold us.
