Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus celebrates the gift of Christ's real presence among us. He tells us to "take and eat"... and to "take and drink" his body and blood! To take and consume his whole life...A life lived, broken, shared... that we may live, and help others to do so.. fully!

Each Sunday as we gather at St. Thomas More Newman Center, we come together as a part of a 'catholic' - 'universal' church throughout the world. In gathering we cross the boundaries of gender, race, class, views, and political affiliations. Around the altar of Christ's Body and Blood... we are one Body, called to nourish and celebrate his Spirit given to us...with each other and beyond!

May we answer this call to unity and take seriously our responsibility to bring the Real Presence of Christ into our everyday lives, strengthened by the Eucharist. Amen!

It is with a spirit of great thanksgiving and joyful appreciation that we thank Teresa Banks for her many years of loving stewardship to the Sunday morning 9AM music ministry, and other gracious involvement at St. Thomas More Newman Center.

Teresa's leadership and joyful spirit has allow our liturgies to be joyful, prayerful, and helpful to connecting Sunday Mass to our daily lives. On behalf of Newman, Tom Booth, and all involved in music ministry at Newman - we say thank you to Teresa, her brother Mark Aronson, and their choir community. May you be blessed many times over for sharing your talents with Newman! May God bless Teresa's future endeavors, and all who are dear to her.

With a grateful heart in Christ, Fr. JP

Hello!

I am Sr. Lynn Allvin, O.P. and I am looking forward to joining the Newman Dominican Community this next semester!

Though I was not born in Arizona, I consider myself an Arizonan! Born in Belleville Il, I am the third of nine Allvins and my family moved to Tucson when I was five years old. Half of my high school years were spent at Sahuaro High here in Tucson and the other half at Blue Ridge High in Lakeside Az. I completed my undergraduate degree in Religious Studies at San Jose State and my graduate degree in Spirituality and Pastoral Ministries at Santa Clara University in California.

I have lived most of my life in Arizona and have been serving in the Dioceses of Phoenix and Tucson for the past 30 years - most recently working for JRS/USA serving as chaplain at the Florence Detention Center.

Joining this Dominican Community will surely be a homecoming for me, as this is the place where I first met the Dominicans when Fr. Tom DeMan was the Director back in the 1980s and the Oakford Dominican Sisters (the community I joined in 1984) began ministry here with the friars in 1981.

I look forward to returning to this community that once awakened and nourished my faith, and I hope to pay forward all that I have received over the years. Looking forward to meeting you soon!

Peace and joy,
Sr. Lynn

5/30 9AM Donna McWilliams

11AM Our Newman Community

5PM Tim Olson

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, remembering the Last Supper when Jesus took bread and wine....blessed, broken and poured out... and gave us the perfect gift of himself.

Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God. -Mk 14:25

As a faithful steward, how does receiving Jesus in the Eucharist, here and now, make me ready for my path to the new Kingdom of God?
