Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

My Dear Community,

I will be stepping away for my yearly "retreat/renewal time". I will be away from my email, phone, and all those others connections. Fr. Pius, Manny Guzman, and our amazing Pastoral Staff will be able to assist you in anything that comes up in my absence.

I take this "real time" every year so that I may continue to stay grounded in all those things required to be healthy, grounded, and peaceful.

Ministry demands much, gives much, and requires quality and clear-mindedness, if it is to be effective and centered in charity. So, I go away "so that I can continue to love you, and you love me." This is not my own quote, but one borrowed from a friend that I deeply believe. You will be in my prayers and I ask for your prayers while I'm away.

The readings while I am away deal with unpacking our commitments:

On 9/19 we are invited to adjust our place in line. Are we seeking our own survival, or are we open to the call - to be of good and proper use to others? Jesus reminds us that if we want to be first in God's eyes, then we must adopt the posture of a servant, and be ready to get out of the line of entitlement, and to bend and wash the feet of those in need. May we have an "increase of personal faith" to "change our place in line" and to experience the joy that can come from giving of ourselves, as God does for us in Christ Jesus.

On 9/26 we will hear Jesus correct his followers against the dangers of tribalism. He says, "whoever is not against us, is with us". Jesus is inviting us to not get caught in petty paranoias that are not grounded in reality. When we do, opportunities for greater collaboration are missed, and we waste energy that could be put towards building God's kingdom. Jesus says, if some 'paranoia' is causing us to sin.... "cut it out" and get rid of it! Thus creating more space for God's grace to work its good effects in us.

On 10/3 Jesus in response to the question of divorce reminds his hearers of the Old Testament's call to spouses to be "one flesh." Marriage is a vocation, "a calling from God" to manifest God's presence "outwardly." The "two" become "one"..... Not destroying one another, but allowing what is best in the other to rise, and to be nurtured in Christ. It is this "Christ-centered nurturing" that allows God's love to flow between the "two", and creates a relationship which promotes unity, respect, forgiveness, compassion, encouragement, change, healing, and new life! In this way, the couple becomes a sign of Christ's true presence to one another, and to the whole world. This is why the church wants couples to prepare for marriage.... To think deeply and to reflect broadly on this great responsibility, and Godly calling. The good news is that Christ dwells deep within the relationship... always supporting and encouraging those called to oneness and peace.

On 10/10 We hear one of my favorite Gospel stories, 'The rich young man.' "Good teacher what must I do to gain everlasting life? Jesus is so patient, and walks with this young person through what they already know.... "know and live the Commandments". When the young person wants more, "Jesus, looks at him with love" and, encourages him to go deeper into his quest for Godly perfection... Jesus, says leave everything that distracts you from God, from attaining what you're truly seeking. And, even after the young person is overwhelmed at the mere thought of this, along with all those hearing this as well..... Jesus reminds them and us... "that nothing is impossible for God." In these days of mixed joys and pains.... Let us remember, and remind one another "that nothing is impossible for God." We may tire, and burnout.... but, God doesn't! May we remember "that the Spirit of the Lord is upon us, and that we have been anointed." This means that we are not alone. May we pray for the courage to remain open, and receptive to the Spirit! Amen

Lastly on 10/17 - Jesus returns to the theme on humility. If you want to be great you have to be willing to serve others! Throughout his public ministry Jesus simply responded to others. He listened, healed, and freed those who carrying heavy burdens of mind, heart, and soul. If we are to share in his ministry you and I must participate in Christ's mission to all people. This call requires an "increase of faith". May the Holy Spirit blow life into our tired souls... May the breath of the Spirit stir us to humility, confidence, and in all things charity!

Amen!

GATHER THE PEOPLE; BREAK THE BREAD; TELL THE STORY.

The Kelleys - Born in Nogales, Arizona and raised in Sierra Vista and graduating from Buena High School, Ana Lopez Kelley is a true Southern Arizonan. She always loved Tucson as it was the place to shop and attend special events like football and baseball games. Of course, the University of Arizona would be the choice for her higher education majoring in Public Management. At the same time, 1972, Ana joined the Newman Center on campus. Even when she went home for the weekend or when her Pop was so ill, Ana drove back to Tucson for Mass, Fr. Bob Burns' lectures and other events. Set aside the year she earned a Masters at Denver University, one could say she has never left Newman!

Upon returning from Denver, She and Andy, her husband, re-met at the Center when she and her sister came to Mass. They sat directly behind him. They recognized each other from high school. A year and a half later, they were married. That was 42 years ago. Andy and Ana have two adult children: Kathleen and James.

Ana's career work was for the City of Tucson in Budget and Research, 30 years, from analyst to the position of Deputy Director. She kept the Newman connection by sitting on boards and committees. Currently, she is helping with altar linens, counting collection monies, reviewing sacramental records, working in the office, and serving as sacristan, Eucharistic minister and usher at the 5:15 Saturday Mass. At times, her daughter, Kathleen, also serves as lector at the same mass. Andy Kelley also serves as Eucharistic minister and usher too.

"Two years ago on our 40th Anniversary Fr. John Paul had us come up for a special blessing that he sang to us! I never felt so special." Family events like weddings, baptisms and funerals have gathered cousins and friends at Newman throughout the years. "It is our home!" says Ana.

Coming Soon—tell your story!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In today's Gospel, we learn that the disciples of Jesus had been discussing among themselves who was the greatest. Jesus is about to turn their idea as well as our society's idea of "greatness" upside down.

If anyone wishes to be first, he must remain the last one of all and the servant of all. Mk 9:35

How do we define greatness? How does our stewardship of all God's goodness/greatness in our lives with the teachings of Jesus Christ?
