Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

An Easter Brew drawn from the heart of Pope Francis and Fr. John Paul:

The Good News is no mere matter of words, but a testimony to unconditional and faithful love: it is about leaving ourselves behind and encountering others, being close to those crushed by life's troubles, sharing with the needy, standing at the side of the sick, elderly, outcast, and our sisters and brothers in the Ukrainian and Russia.

He is Risen!

Love is more powerful than death.... Love brings us to the Springtime... at the conclusion of our Lenten sojourn! Love and Easter peace.... gives life, and makes hope blossom in the wilderness.

The women and disciples finding the tomb empty were first perplexed and then anxious.... but, then the "mysterious strangers" reminded them of what Jesus said.... "All these things needed to take place". With this living memory... they found their breath, and inhaled Christ's Easter Peace.

With this joyful certainty in our hearts, today we turn to you, risen Lord!

Help us to seek you and to find you, to realize that we have a Loving Creator.... and we are not orphans; help us to love and adore you!

Lord, we pray to you for all the peoples of the earth: especially those in the Ukraine and Russia. For you have conquered death, please grant us your life, and your peace!"

Christus surrexit, venite et videte!

May our Faith increase and our Joy call out.

Amen! Alleluia!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

He is Risen! Alleluia! In John's Gospel, Mary of Magdala left early in the morning while it was still dark. She was the very first witness at the empty tomb. She saw but did not fully understand.

"Simon Peter arrived... (and) went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths, but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in (to the tomb) and saw, and he believed." Jn. 20:6

A witness is one who sees for themselves. We "see for ourselves" when we prayerfully read the Scriptures. We "see for ourselves" each time we receive the Eucharist. We "see for ourselves" when we pour out our lives in loving service. Let us pray to see and understand!
