Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you will have no life in me". A powerful statement from this Sunday's Gospel. Corpus Christi - the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ!

As the Spirit of the Lord continues to shower down upon each of us.. so, does the call to be united and fed "in Christ".

How appropriate it is that the call for unity comes from Christ, who is the redeemer, and feeder of our souls! Christ is our way, truth, and life.... the Word spoken, and offered as "balm" for all - that separates us from one another.

In today's Gospel, Jesus invites his followers to "participate" by realizing that they are truly receiving him into their very selves.. And, that this is what transforms, feeds, and heals.... This is the "nourishment" for the mission of being a disciple.... It allows us be attentive to the personal needs of our community, to serve Christ's message by being hospitable and feeding others, and, "calls us" to continue to share this grace filled 'encounter' as 'food' which changes hearts and minds.

God invites us to listen to this call to serve, and to stir it into the living of our daily lives. We have so many fears that can rattle the cages of our personal, global, and spiritual security. How might we better ground ourselves in the promise of God to "be with us always"... and to accompany us into the places and spiritual landscapes - that we fear to tread? It is through constant practice and prayerful courage that we continue forward to feed others.

On this Corpus Christi Sunday may we have the courage to come to the Eucharistic Table and receive what Christ wishes to offer us... The gift of his very self! It is his body broken and given to the world as food for our living.... It is his blood poured out for the salvation of the world. It is the gift of God's love that brings life, and direction to the deflated, and purpose to the aimless...

May God's Spirit continue to blow across ALL of our worries and fears.... of Wars in the Ukraine and Russia, Shootings, Lingering Covid pockets, Racial Injustice, the day's heat, and our soul's questions towards seeking truth . May we be fed deeply, and feed others with care. Oh Lord Increase our Faith. Amen!

We also celebrate Father's Day... May the grace of the Holy Spirit surround all Dads, Grandads, and Father-figures in our lives. May they experience the Spirit of Truth and the Love of God in their lives, and be protected as they care for all of us! Amen!

We offer special prayers of welcome and for a peaceful transition back for Fr. Emmanuel Taylor to us in Tucson. Fr. Emmanuel was here for 2018 to 2020 as associate pastor, and will return on July 1st.

We acknowledge the People of the Land who have dwelt here since time immemorial and continue to live in this place today: Tohono O'odham, Sobaipuri O'odham, Pascua Yaqui and other Native Americans. We give thanks for the original stewards of this land, our ancestors, our elders and all Indigenous People.

GATHER THE PEOPLE; BREAK THE BREAD; TELL THE STORY.

Our Newman Community lost a good, good man on Monday, June 6th . Fr. Robert Burns, O.P. was also a priest, professor, world-renowned author, with a PhD in religious studies. This good man touched so many lives. How? He had magical twinkle in his eye and a gentle voice and manner, a Midwestern gentleman.

Before he retired from the University of Arizona, Fr. Bob juggled teaching and priestly duties, usually at the early Sunday morning mass. Dennis, the Sacristan, would engage him in Dallas Cowboys' statistics and records. Fr. Bob held his own in those discussions, but many know he was a Chicago White Sox fan. Baseball was a favorite of his. Stacy, another Sacristan, was weighing her science professional career and Fr. Bob was always supportive of her options. Before, during and after Mass, he would do his own outreach with community members who had been former students, who had been married or baptized by him, or who just caught his attention. His homilies usually referred to family and his own Catholic School experiences—do pets go to heaven? Not a big fan of technology, Fr. Bob would have to be reminded and then assisted with the microphone clipped onto his vestments before Mass. At critical times during the semester, Fr. Bob would have to rush off to “grade exams.” His thoroughness always created lengthy exams which he insisted on grading himself. He told stories of unruly athletes who thought there were ways to get around rules and then discovered he was not only “Dr. Burns” but also “Fr. Burns.”

After retirement, Fr. Bob's adopted family members would drive him to Mass. He would enter through the back door--his presence among us was holy. After Mass, he would join Fr. Tom's Cafe and then go to breakfast with friends. No one was a stranger to Fr. Bob—he had a big following, not like a social media following, but a well-earned family, friends, former students and colleagues group who had been deeply touched by his words and deeds and presence among us.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The very word, Eucharist, means “thanksgiving” or “gratitude” and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God’s blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, it is God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

“The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you.’” In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift?

We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord’s example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead.
