Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

What needs to rise in us? Is it our confidence, or peace of mind? Is it our grade point average, or our attitude surrounding our health? Is it a willingness to create a new habit, and to stop cultivating an old one that we're always stumbling over? What is it that needs more courage?

One of the beautiful things about community is that it has the potential to provide great support. In our first reading this Sunday the arms of Moses are supported by two of his colleagues, so that God's mission for the community is shared and able to come to successful completion. Who around us could use some support or "holding up" ?

Please know that our mission at the St. Thomas More Newman Center is to provide a supportive environment where your faith and community life can flourish. We invite you to join our email list to keep yourselves informed about events and ways to support Newman in its service to the students of the University of Arizona.

Today's Gospel shows us that persistence - in and through -all seasons and personalities that we encounter pays off in the end. May we "Bear Down... and keep our hearts open to receive God's treasure!

GATHER THE PEOPLE; BREAK THE BREAD; TELL THE STORY.

Kevin Frederick and Lauren Weinand met at a Newman Young Adult ice cream social in 2014. They married in April, 2022. This could be the whole story, but it's not! Their lives have demonstrated goal-setting, community building, patience, love, and commitment.

Both grew up in Arizona: Kevin in Phoenix and Lauren in Tucson. Both grew up in three-children families and attended Catholic high schools, Brophy and Salpointe. Both chose the University of Arizona to earn degrees: Kevin in Materials Science and Engineering, B.S. and PhD, 2021, and Lauren an undergraduate degree in preparation for Medical School and an MD. Kevin's introduction to the Newman Center was as a freshman in 2008. His high school friends, his desire to continue his spiritual journey, and the promise of a Catholic community directed him. He participated in the Campus Leadership Team and social justice ministry serving with the Casa Maria Newmanites and the Just Coffee program. He was most influenced by the Faith and Science forums which helped him to encounter God in the natural world and in his science work.

Lauren joined Newman's Young Adults in 2014 searching for Catholic community beyond Sunday Mass attendance. It was here she met Kevin and others, single and married. Their common experiences as graduate students and professionals enabled them to share life and faith in worship and ministry. Lauren remembers them fondly along with their wedding prep team and the wedding day with Fr. JP, Sr. Angelica, Genevieve and Manny. Kevin says, "At Newman I constantly found myself surrounded by some of the most genuinely good people I have ever met."

She works remotely as an Associate Scientific Director for HMP Global in Medical Communication and Education. Kevin is involved in post-doctoral research on the UA campus. Many love stories originate here at Newman; the Frederick and Weinand Story is proof! See their wedding portrait among those found near the Newman Book of Prayers and Petitions in the church. Coming soon. . . tell your story!

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas, located near Kino and Ajo Way, serves migrant families who have left their home countries to escape violence and poverty. After arriving in the US, they have been granted humanitarian parole and are here legally to await an asylum hearing. Casa Alitas volunteers offer support by providing hospitality, including food, shelter, advocacy, and travel assistance. Our goal is to provide a comfortable, healthy location for travelers to await their journeys and to prepare them for a safe trip.

Visits are planned on the 1st Thursdays and the 3rd Saturdays monthly when it fits into your schedule. Here's a Casa Alitas Orientation PowerPoint; it provides an excellent overview and insight into what Casa Alitas is and what it does.

This can help you decide if this type of community service is a good fit for you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The four pillars of parish stewardship are hospitality, prayer, formation, and service. Today's readings instruct us in the importance of our faithfulness to prayer, as individuals and as a parish community.

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it. Tim 3:14

As Christian stewards we must remain faithful to our relationship with God through prayer. A strong prayer life will make all our efforts fruitful.
