Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

The entire point of religion is to make us humble before God and to open us to the path of love. Our faith and its practice... is meant to ground and form us.... in the exercise of love, and to put this out there.... for all to see. It's meant to break down any unhealthy ego, and to allow our hearts...minds... and souls.... to be in concert with God's rhythm and peace. This is intended - to make us and the world.... more unified and peaceful.

St. Paul warns us about using the law as a weapon of aggression (" Since I know what is right and wrong I am uniquely positioned to point these out to you missing what's deficient in me") instead of a means to protect and promote the common good of all. To build up all others - where we need it, and not just the few... For we are all in need of God's mercy... Pharisees in JC's time were stereotypically good guys - seeking to do God's will. Tax collectors were stereotypically bad folks who stole and cheated others....

The Parable is meant to help us see the difference in their prayer approaches speaking to God: The Pharisee is confident and assured - and sets himself apart... "He speaks this prayer to himself - (the attitude of prayer - but not the true spirit). What's meant to break him out of his self regard, he just confirms.

The purpose of "knowing the law" is to awaken humility and care of neighbor... not distance, elevation, and self regard... but care and right stewardship :)

The tax collector is humble, broken open, and knows his need for God. The tax collector knew that he did wrong, and offers a truly humble prayer - and went home "justified... set right" -- b/c he was able to be grounded enough "in grace" to allow it to work on him - as a part of God's family... who needs and depends on this.

This parable invite us to ask some hard questions:

How often have we use our knowledge of the law to put others down?

How often have I used the law to attack another, and not for healthy self examination?

How often do I not wrestle hard enough with my responsibility to be truly humble and as a means to grow?

Lord Jesus Christ... Son of the living God.... be merciful to me a sinner!

Everything else is more or less a footnote.

Liturgy, prayer, the precepts of the Church, the commandments, sacraments, sacramentals.... all of it! Is finally meant to conform us to the way of love.

"When they instead turn us away from that path by devolving into a source of pride and pomposity, they have been undermined."

Jesus' famous parable about the prayers of the pharisee and the tax collector from this Sunday's readings illustrates precisely this danger of co-opting religion for the purposes of our ego. May we strive in faith... to be courageous in our prayer.... to truly be "grounded" in the promise and love of God.... Always lifting of our thoughts, heart, soul, and life - to God, through Christ Jesus, in the power of the Holy Spirit!

Amen!

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas, located near Kino and Ajo Way, serves migrant families who have left their home countries to escape violence and poverty. After arriving in the US, they have been granted humanitarian parole and are here legally to await an asylum hearing. Casa Alitas volunteers offer support by providing hospitality, including food, shelter, advocacy, and travel assistance. Our goal is to provide a comfortable, healthy location for travelers to await their journeys and to prepare them for a safe trip.

Visits are planned on the 1st Thursdays and the 3rd Saturdays monthly when it fits into your schedule. Here's a Casa Alitas Orientation PowerPoint; it provides an excellent overview and insight into what Casa Alitas is and what it does. This can help you decide if this type of community service is a good fit for you.

If you are interested in serving and helping others on a 1st Thursday, please contact Michele Brubaker at brubakermm9@gmail.com or (520) 906-1663. ### STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Gospel reading calls us to deeper wisdom, opening our minds and softening our hearts to those we encounter. We must be ready to set aside any bias and to find goodness in each other.

But you spare all things, because they are yours, O LORD, lover of souls, for your imperishable spirit is in all things! Wis. 111:26

A faithful steward approaches everyone with an open heart — through the lens of loving hospitality. How often do I pray for the gift of wisdom that I may truly be present and hospitable to those I encounter in my life?
