The Catholic Newman Center joins its prayers with those of the wider community as we grieve the senseless loss of Dr. Thomas Meixner. We are painfully aware of the impact a tragedy like this has on the entire campus community.

Newman Centers exist to provide an opportunity for dialog and exploration of how our spiritual life, intellectual pursuits and navigating relationships come together in day-to-day life. Dr. Meixner was the embodiment of this pursuit for wholeness and integration. His scholarly focus on our most precious resource, water, was an extension of his deeply-held belief in the care of our common creation and the earth's resources.

It wasn't just about his work, though. It was also the way in which he carried himself as a husband, father, colleague, professor and mentor to others. His generosity of time and joyful, encouraging presence are a common theme from the stories we've heard from those we've spoken with in the aftermath of Wednesday's shooting.

We are deeply moved by the outpouring of support offered for Tom's family, colleagues and students. Church communities are at our best when we are hubs of support and encouragement. May we answer the call to walk with one another in consolation and love during these difficult days whether we have a faith tradition or not. The world needs more goodness, may it begin with us and be shared with others. Amen.

ST THOMAS MORE SOCIETY RED MASS

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger will celebrate the Annual Red Mass on Wednesday, October 12, 2022 at 5:30 p.m. at St. Augustine Cathedral. This annual tradition of holding a Mass for judges, attorneys, law school professors, and others working in the legal profession, dates to the opening of parliament in 13th century England. During the Mass, we pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit for all who seek justice, and we focus on the God-given power and responsibility of all those working in the legal profession.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The readings today remind us that gratitude is key to our lives as Christians. Our truth is that our very life and every breath we take are God's gift to us

And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.
-Lk. 17:6

Gratitude begins within our minds and hearts. Stewardship calls us to take time to recognize how blessed we truly are. When is the last time that I humbly stood before God, recognizing where my blessings come from?
