Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

These few last weeks have brought cooler temperatures, and some of the most beautiful nights.. The temperatures and cool night's air have inspired me to take more walks in the evenings. What a blessing it's been to have a little space at the end of the day to think, pray, and to simply raise.... all of the day's concerns and joys to God...

Today's readings are seeking to call our attention to God's embrace of the whole universe.... "For you who fear my name there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays." To "fear" in this sense is not to shake and cower from God in a corner, but to draw closer to him... as the One who will help us with what to say... in our darker and more confusing moments, as well, as when we're clear and peaceful in heart and mind.

In today's Gospel we are called to "perseverance" in the promise that God continues to make to us.... in all moments of life... to always be there! It is this promise that allows us the 'courage' to breathe.... and to know.... that we can raise 'anything' to God.... and, that in Christ, and, in the Holy Spirit.... we will receive what we need.... to be whole, and at peace. May we hold on through these last weeks of November, into the blessings of Thanksgiving, and into the conclusion of the semester. In the 'crazy moments' may we remember to breathe in..... and, to recall 'who' is the source of our breath, life, and existence.. It is this 'One' who reminds us.... that not "one hair will be destroyed on our heads." May we hold on to this blessing. Amen!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, we are called to persevere and pray. Now is the time to turn to our God of justice, who rules His people with love.

“For he comes to rule the earth, he will rule the world with justice, and the peoples with equity”. Ps. 98:9

Faithful stewards place their hope in Jesus who promises He will lead all the faithful to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. How do I persevere in my prayer?

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTIONS AT MASS

This is an ongoing community outreach project of the Newman Center and the University of Arizona Knights of Columbus Council 16061. All Newman Parishioners are invited to participate in our ongoing (yearly) food donations. Non-perishable food items only, please. Donation bins are located at all entrances of the chapel. The food donations will benefit Casa Maria, Pio Decimo, and Poverello House.

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas, located near Kino and Ajo Way, serves migrant families who have left their home countries to escape violence and poverty. After arriving in the US, they have been granted humanitarian parole and are here legally to await an asylum hearing. Casa Alitas volunteers offer support by providing hospitality, including food, shelter, advocacy, and travel assistance. Our goal is to provide a comfortable, healthy location for travelers to await their journeys and to prepare them for a safe trip.

Visits are planned on the 1st Thursdays and the 3rd Saturdays monthly when it fits into your schedule. Here's a Casa Alitas Orientation PowerPoint; it provides an excellent overview and insight into what Casa Alitas is and what it does.

This can help you decide if this type of community service is a good fit for you.

If you are interested in serving and helping others on a 1st Thursday, please contact Michele Brubaker at brubakerm9@gmail.com or (520) 906-1663. If you are interested in serving and helping others on a 3rd Saturday, please contact Dan Chavez at fotoventures@gmail.com or (520) 904-5730.
