Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

What does it mean to be worthy of, and to receive God's love? To cling to nothing..... We can't earn, buy, or steal it... we can only be open to the gift of it coming into our lives.

God's love is the beginning, foundation, and sustaining spirit of everything... And, for this reason... nothing can, should, or will be ever above it. This is why we are told that whoever puts anything or person above the I AM of everything is "not worthy of me."

God's posture is always about giving back.... And, if we're open to receiving this love... it comes back in surprising and abundant ways. As we have received God's adoption in the waters of baptism... may we always offer those "cups of cold water" to our sisters and brothers regardless of race, creed, economics, and/or situation. For in baptism we die and rise with Christ... that we may die and rise with others... Thus, always being transformed by God's Spirit of truth and love. Amen!

Our summer at Newman has 'slowed down' from the normal pace of things..... as it always does. We work during the days with the evenings off to enjoy extra time for relaxing and enjoying our own personal time and/or connecting with others.

It has also been a good time for some of the pastoral staff to travel for personal retreats, family time, our religious communities meetings, different pastoral conferences, vacations, and getting ahead on some plans for the next academic year.

Some exciting news coming our way is that starting in August, the Newman Center will be partnering in our outreach to UofA students with FOCUS - the Fellowship Of Catholic University Students. Four well-trained post-undergrads will be joining us in Tucson. Manny and I had the pleasure of meeting them a couple of weeks ago in Lincoln, Nebraska where they have been receiving formation all summer.

The FOCUS Missionaries will mainly be working to expand Newman's campus outreach through partnering with our already-established Student Ministry Programs, and sharing some of their approaches to lifelong discipleship in Jesus Christ. They are a wonderful, diverse group of young women and men. More on that to come!

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas needs your help to serve migrant individuals and families fleeing their home countries to escape violence and poverty. Having been granted humanitarian parole by Immigration and Customs Enforcement, these individuals are in the U.S. legally to await their court date. The stop-over at Casa Alitas is a brief respite en route to their final destinations with family or sponsors.

The Newman Center leads service outreach groups to volunteer on the 1st Thursday and 3rd Saturday monthly. We encourage reflection on how you can serve our community to help others. Please consider signing up to volunteer at a time that fits your schedule.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to Michele Brubaker (1st Thursday leader) at brubakermm9@gmail.com, (520) 906-1663 or Dan Chavez (3rd Saturday leader) at fotoventures@gmail.com, or (520) 904-5730.

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTIONS AT MASS

Non-perishable food items only, please. Donation bins are located at all entrances of the chapel. Donations will benefit Casa Maria, Pio Decimo, and Poverello House.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The readings challenge us focus on “otherness”, that is, to “lose our lives”, putting God first and caring for others. When we do any loving action for another, in the name of Jesus, we do it for Jesus.

“Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.” Mt. 10:40

The path of holiness compels faithful stewards to love others. How am I challenged to make changes in my life, to be emptied of self-love that I may be filled with God's love?
