Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Jesus, like many other teachers of his time, loved the use of parables. He used them as often as he could, and those who heard them were left spellbound.

Parables offer three movements: orientation to something that we think we know... only to disorientate us, then to re-orientate us again - in what is true.

In the Parable of Wheat and the Weeds - from the 16th Sunday.. we are invited to have a different response towards the wheat and weeds growing together. Instead of separating them we are called to allow them grow together and for God to do the separating later, if needed. God's grace and mercy will act during the growth of wheat and weeds.

Next weekend, in the Buried Treasure and a Pearl of Great Price - from the 17th Sunday - we are pointed towards the consideration of the Kingdom of God, being a treasure, or a pearl of great price, which we are to value 'so much' that we would be willing to do 'anything' to attain it. If we do this, the Kingdom can act upon our lives, and make a significant difference.

In the Feeding of the Great Crowd - from the 18th Sunday - we see Jesus caring for the physical needs of a massive crowd by feeding them spiritually, and then serving them a meal that allows not only everyone to be fed, but also have an abundance leftover. It seems that real generosity produces deep miracles.

In the coming week, much of the Pastoral Staff will step away for out-of-state ministry conferences and a little renewal before the "opening" of another academic year of ministry at Newman. We do so confident that whatever is before us as a Newman community, that we will be supported by the Grace of God that transforms and leads.... with the Spirit of Truth and the Love of God!
Amen!

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

What do you say when a friend or family member asks you about, or comments about, the Catholic Church? For many of us, that's a little uncomfortable. Yet, it can often be a manifestation of someone reaching out in search of a deeper relationship with God. And they're reaching out to you! Fear not. Throughout the entire year, members of the Newman RCIA team are available to sit with anyone who is interested in learning more about what it is to be Catholic, why we do what we do, what is involved in exploring becoming a part of the church... So, your response to these questions can be very simple and very effective... invite them to an inquiry session. You're welcome to come, too, if you wish to support, to learn, to be part of another person's walk of faith. This can bring amazing growth into your own faith life.

RCIA Sessions (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) are held in conjunction with the 11AM Sunday Masses. For more info, contact Manny@UACatholic.org or call the office. If you already know that you would like to take this step in your faith journey, please fill out the application at UACatholic.org/RCIA

ADULT CONFIRMATION PREP

The Sacrament of Confirmation is the final step towards full initiation in the Catholic Church. We hold sessions on Tuesdays at 7:30PM during the semesters for those who were baptized Catholic and for whatever reason never received the Sacraments of First Eucharist or Confirmation. To learn more and to download an application, visit UACatholic.org/Confirmation

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings teach us about God's desire for justice and kindness, the Spirit's help in our weaknesses, and how the righteous are called to bring about the Kingdom.

"Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear." Mt 13:43

The faithful steward knows that God sees our treasures and blesses our offerings of time, talent, and treasure that they may shine like the sun. How am I a good steward of all that is entrusted in my care?
