Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

What greater adventure is there in life, then to really live.... and, to truly participate in what allows us, to really rise.... and live....

God does not spare laying down life, in order that we may live.... So, as seekers of that same life, truth, and love ... we are called to do the same... give our lives... for others...

As move through our Lenten Season on this 4th Sunday.... May God's never ending love be a source of inspiration and perseverance for us to embrace whatever is the truest form of transformation for ourselves this year. May the Holy Spirit offer the gifts most needed for us to get there. Amen!

Note from Manny: Thank You for your incredible response to our direct appeal for the kitchen refrigerator & freezer that recently went out. We raised over $13,000! The new units were installed. Other spring break projects included: tiling of the Parkman Library & Student Lounge as well as completion of the plumbing Permaliner for the downstairs bathrooms. Some of these things were planned, most were not. Any financial support you can give towards Property Improvements are greatly needed & invested right back in our aging buildings so we can carry out ministries. Thanks again, Newman

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas needs community support to serve migrant individuals and families fleeing their home countries to escape violence and poverty. The individuals served by Casa Alitas have been granted humanitarian parole by Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and they are allowed to remain in the U.S. to await their asylum court date. The stop-over at Casa Alitas is a brief respite en route to their final destinations with family or sponsors.

Casa Alitas is largely volunteer-run. If you are interested in community service, the Newman Center leads volunteers on the 1st Thursday and other times monthly. Volunteers create a safe and welcoming space for guests. Opportunities include guest intake, food service, clothing donation room, laundry and linen support, arts and activities for children, travel planning, and airport escort.

We encourage you to reflect on how you can serve our community to help others. Please consider signing up to volunteer at a time that fits your schedule. To sign up or for questions, please contact Michele Brubaker at brubakerm9@gmail.com, (520) 906-1663.

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTIONS AT MASS

Non-perishable food items only, please. Donation bins are located at all entrances of the chapel. Donations will benefit Casa Maria, Pio Decimo, and Poverello House.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today the Church celebrates Laetare Sunday, when we pray “Rejoice, Jerusalem, be joyful all who are in mourning.” The Church gives us encouragement to continue to pursue God’s grace during this holy penitential season.

“God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us...brought us to life with Christ...and raised us up with him.” Eph. 2:4;9

We are called to be merciful and loving stewards, knowing that God’s grace calls us to a life with Christ. How do I share the joy of my faith, the message of God’s love with someone who needs encouragement?
