Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Peace be with you" is the powerful phase and echo that we hear throughout the Easter Season. It's Christ's invitation to his followers is to allow.... the 'healing balm' of 'resurrected love' to remain 'in them' as his disciples.

Peace be with you...., in, around, and through... everything that we do... is that 'musical 'beat' which Christ wants to get into our 'hearts, minds, souls and strength. He wants it to permeate... 'light and deep healing' to all areas of our lives!

It is an Easter peace... that 'heals' the broken hearted; gives 'sight' to blind, 'frees' those "tombd in" by lack of opportunity, community, friendship, and soul.

It is a peace.... that invites us.... to rise from ghosting and "casting shade" on true communication and human connection..... Especially, in our relationships with one another..... whether these be: causal associations, good friendships, romantic relationships, family ties....., or professional connections through work, church, or wider life!

In today's Gospel Jesus returns again post his first resurrection appearance - to his disciples - in the upper room!

He once again expresses "Easter peace" and invites his followers - beyond their fear of seeing and experiencing his Risen Glory - as something scary, confusing and distant...., But, instead- as something - to be anointed with, and, rubbed in.... In order - to be strengthened and healed.... for navigating and living their lives.

He eats in their company, so that they can SEE and "remember" that this is truly "him" their teacher, friend, and Lord... WHO really walked and 'physically accompanied' them in the flesh..

He calls them/and US -by name..... and, "exorcises" from them/us..... all that is lazy, wrathful, paralyzed by fear and paranoia, deeply cynical, resentful, detached, confused, controlling, insecure, or indifferent!

All this - Christ - casts out, by saying "peace be with you! Jesus invites you and me - to this same "table fellowship" every time we share the Eucharist at mass.

May we have the courage to "look beyond the bread we eat, to see our savior and Lord, to look beyond the cup we drink, to see his life poured out as blood"

Let us continue to walk in the "Glory" of Easter Peace, and to allow its wonderful effects... to anoint, raise and renew ourselves and all that is around us! Alleluia

As mentioned last weekend we have the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick - available today at 9AM & 5PM Masses for those who are suffering from any serious maladies body or mind. In this Sacrament the Church believes that Christ is "truly present" anointing, healing and accompanying" those who suffer from maladies of body, mind, and spirit.

For some this may mean a terminal illness, for others this may mean a mental health illness or challenge - which affects their ability to heal and lead a full life. We invite those who wish to come forward - to form two lines - as if coming forward for communion. The priest will briefly lay hands upon you head and pray silently; he will then anoint your head and your the palms of your hands. Your response is AMEN!

CASA ALITAS OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Casa Alitas needs community support to serve migrant individuals and families fleeing their home countries to escape violence and poverty. The individuals served by Casa Alitas have been granted humanitarian parole by Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and they are allowed to remain in the U.S. to await their asylum court date. The stop-over at Casa Alitas is a brief respite en route to their final destinations with family or sponsors.

Casa Alitas is largely volunteer-run. If you are interested in community service, the Newman Center leads volunteers on the 1st Thursday and other times monthly. Volunteers create a safe and welcoming space for guests. Opportunities include guest intake, food service, clothing donation room, laundry and linen support, arts and activities for children, travel planning, and airport escort.

We encourage you to reflect on how you can serve our community to help others. Please consider signing up to volunteer at a time that fits your schedule. To sign up or for questions, please contact Michele Brubaker at brubakerm9@gmail.com, (520) 906-1663.

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTIONS AT MASS

Non-perishable food items only, please. Donation bins are located at all entrances of the chapel. Donations will benefit Casa Maria, Pio Decimo, and Poverello House.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Gospel today reminds us that when we come to know the Resurrected Christ, we become his witness of His transforming peace.

“O Lord let the light of your countenance shine upon us. You put gladness into my heart!” Ps 4:8

Stewardship calls us to live the Resurrection, allowing the mystery to affect our minds and hearts, transforming how we live. How are you bringing our Risen Christ’s Easter gift of peace into the lives of others?
