Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

It is hard to believe that the Fourth Sunday of Advent is upon us, and once again we hear the great account of how Mary was found with child, and Joseph's struggle with this new situation that they found themselves in. What a dilemma to be in! Your beloved with whom you're planning a life with... is now with a child that is not yours... Here, we not only see Mary's great "yes" to God's request in enter her life, but also 'see' Joseph 'assent' to God's invitation into deeper hope and trust.

Advent echoes God's constant promise to be present to us in all seasons and moments of life. The witness of Mary and Joseph remind us of what God can do for those who "Bear Down" and believe. What needs a little more, or less attention in our lives this Season? The feast of Christmas celebrates God "bearing down" upon our humanity, and informing us that there is a way for human beings to 'rise above' all limitations, to shed all unhealthy aspects of our ego, and, to embrace 'authentic charity' both in word and deed.

Our Christmas readings celebrate the fact... that even in the darkness of human error and evil choices... God will not be 'denied' in bringing about the faith, hope, and love needed... to create both transformation, and new birth. Let us approach this final Sunday of Advent hopeful, and ready... to embrace whatever 'positive changes' that the Holy Spirit has stirred in our hearts this Advent! May our Christmas celebrations allow us to sing with the angels and the shepherds "Glory to God in the highest! And, peace to all people of good will!

May Light of the Christmas Season... guide us through the dramas, jealousies and failures... in our and, in others behavior. May we not fall prey to "Herodian-Like" responses, thus, not receiving God's invitation to freedom... but, rather the "deep-listening" obedience... of Mary and Joseph. May their gift of authentic listening be a bright star that guides our paths into a New Year, and provides "Epiphanies" that allow our world to resound with Joy and Peace in 2025!

May God bless your Christmas Season, and fill you with countless opportunities to "repeat the endless joy" Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year!

Amen. Alleluia

Dear St. Thomas More Newman Center Community,

On behalf of the Marin-Oropeza, Lugo Gold Star family and the Gallardo family, I would like to express our deepest gratitude for your generous sponsorship of veteran's wreaths for the Wreaths Across America Day event. Your participation in the raffle for the Virgen de Guadalupe tiles, supporting UAz game day parking lot at the Newman Center, and wreath sponsorships played a key role in making our event on December 14, 2024 a great success. We are truly grateful for your support and commitment to honoring our veterans. The matching 2 wreaths for $17 event is currently happening and ends on January 17, 2025. St. Thomas More Peace and Social Justice Committee receives one third of the sales made from our sponsorship page. Please use this link-

Thank you once again for your generosity. We look forward to seeing you again next year! We pray that peace, love and joy reign in your hearts in 2025,

Sincerely,

Maria Marin Ed.D, Proud Gold Star Mother of Fallen U.S. Army Ranger, Sgt. Martin A. Lugo KIA 8/19/2010

Greetings and Advent 2024 Blessings!

It's hard to believe that we are ending the semester and entering the Christmas Season and New Year! This term has been filled with energy, enthusiasm, and remarkable participation.

The semester began with great momentum as our forty student leaders in ministry, along with our Newman Focus Missionaries, joined Fr. Emmanuel and me for our annual Formation Retreat. This retreat set the tone for the year through prayer, reflection, and our chosen theme: "Love your enemies, do good, expecting nothing in return." Together, we explored what it means to be called, formed, and sent by Christ, deepening our knowledge of and participation in our Catholic faith.

At the Newman Center, we live out this mission through five key pillars: liturgical life, community life, faith formation, outreach, and social justice. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we strive to uplift one another—our hands in prayer, our minds in study, our hearts in connection and community, and our souls in openness to God's voice.

This intentional approach has resulted in a vibrant and active semester filled with weekly and monthly events. We've seen incredible growth in student participation across daily Mass, confessions, small groups, Newman Nights, and more. The Newman library, student lounge, and my daily appointments have all been bustling, with an overall 28% increase in students spending time at the Newman Center. This growth is a tremendous blessing and beautifully aligns with our mission.

However, with this growth comes increased financial need. While students are generously contributing their time and talents, our budget has not kept pace with our rising expenses. Here's where we stand:

| Four Months 10-31-24 | Actual | Budget | Shortfall |
|-----------------------------------|------------|------------|-------------|
| Offertory | $ 142,310 | $ 156,000 | $ (13,690) |
| Total Revenue | $ 197,326 | $ 257,481 | $ (60,155) |
| Average per week (at 17 weeks) | | | |
| Offertory | $ 8,371 | $ 9,176 | $ (805) |
| Total Revenue | $ 11,607 | $ 15,146 | $ (3,539) |

Through the first four months of our fiscal year (July–October), we are facing a significant revenue shortfall. To cover our operating expenses, we need an additional $3,000 per week in our offertory collection. Ideally, we'd also raise an additional $3,500 weekly to build a sustaining fund for unexpected costs, often stemming from deferred maintenance.

I am especially praying for a large Christmas collection to help offset our current $60,000 revenue deficit. We need to not only close this gap but also find additional supporters, both locally and beyond, who feel called to partner with Newman's mission. If you know of others who may wish to contribute to this worthy cause, I ask for your help in reaching them.

Despite these challenges, our future remains bright! We are excited about plans for a future expansion of the Newman Center. Thank you to everyone who participated in interviews, focus groups, and the online survey. While I don't have major updates at this time, we expect to share more in late January.

Please know that I, along with our dedicated staff, remain fully committed to our Newman mission: "To be transformed through an encounter with the Spirit of truth and the love of God." Thank you for your continued support—spiritually, through volunteering, and in your financial stewardship. Your generosity sustains this ministry and ensures it can thrive for years to come.

As we approach the 100th anniversary of the Newman Center in 2026, my prayer is that this sacred place will continue to foster transformative encounters with God's love and truth for another hundred years and beyond.

With deepest respect and love,

Fr. John Paul Forté, OP
Pastor

THE CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred, and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) is the U.S. Bishop's program aimed at breaking the cycle of poverty in the United States. Through our support of this Campaign, we help to further the mission of Jesus ... "to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, sight to the blind and free the oppressed. The CCHD has a complimentary mission of education about poverty and its root causes to break the cycle of poverty. Education for justice and helping those who are directly impacted by unjust systems and structures reflects the mandate of the Scriptures and the principles of Catholic social teaching. The CCHD helps those most impacted by poverty to participate in decisions that directly affect their lives, families and community. On January 19th, we are invited to join other Catholics throughout the United States and donate to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. As Pope Francis said, "when the good of others is at stake, good intentions are not enough". Please prayerfully consider how you can make a difference through your financial support. If you would like more information about the collection and the people it supports, visit www.usccb.org/cchd
