Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

This reflection beautifully intertwines the themes of mountains, transformation, and obedience found in Scripture. It emphasizes the personal and communal journeys we take toward God through encounters that change us. Abraham's journey of faith, which was born out of a willingness to hear and obey God's voice, is a poignant reminder of how faith can transform our lives and direct us toward something greater than ourselves. The transfiguration of Jesus witnessed by Peter, James, and John also highlights the moment of divine revelation and the fear and awe that accompany such transformative experiences. The message to embrace these moments, to allow them to lead us toward spiritual growth, and to love God and others with all of ourselves is powerful, particularly during the Lenten season, which calls us to a deeper engagement with the divine.

The imagery of climbing God's mountains as a metaphor for spiritual growth is particularly striking. It invites us to see our struggles, our "mountain climbs," as opportunities for encountering God in new and profound ways. The call to move away from behaviors that lead to death and toward those that bring truth and love is both a challenge and an invitation—one that requires both courage and a willingness to be transformed.

This reflection encourages a full commitment to God's call, with the aim of becoming more like Christ—loving with everything we are, extending grace to our neighbors, and embracing the transformative power of the Gospel in every aspect of our lives.

"May we love our enemies, do good, and expect nothing in return."

Amen. Alleluia

ANNOUNCEMENT

Fr. David Geib, O.P., a beloved former pastor of our St. Thomas More Newman Community from 1987 to 1994, passed away this week. The donation of Fr. David's family inheritance of $140,000 began the Newman Foundation which has funded hundreds of thousands for numerous scholarship as well as capital improvements at the center over the past 30 years. Notes of condolence may be sent to David's sister: Margie Wilkerson (191 Mountain Ave., Piedmont, CA 94611). Below are his Vigil and Funeral Arrangements. We offer the deepest condolences to Fr. David Geib's family and friends.

The vigil for Fr. David Geib, OP will be held on Tuesday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. St. Dominic Church 475 E. I St, Benicia, CA. 94510.

Fr. John Paul's Letter

My Dear St. Thomas More Newman Center Community,

I hope this letter finds you well and that your Lenten season is off to a blessed start. On Ash Wednesday, our chapel was filled to capacity with students throughout the day. We held two Liturgy of the Word services and three Masses, each with the distribution of ashes. It was truly inspiring to witness so many students actively engaging in this sacred time of reflection and renewal.

As we enter this season of Lent, we are invited to deepen our faith through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving—practices that cultivate a greater sense of hope, love, and devotion.

However, over the past several months, we have faced significant increases in our operational costs. Utility expenses have risen, retreat center fees have gone up, food prices have climbed due to greater student participation, and overall program costs have grown as we continue to serve more students.

Additionally, an unexpected and costly issue has arisen: the water pipes in my casita, which had been functioning without issue for nearly a century, began to fail. Persistent puddles on my kitchen floor led to the discovery of a spraying pipe that required immediate repair, along with another pipe that was on the brink of failure. These repairs cost us $1,500, but we also uncovered mold and asbestos, which resulted in nearly $22,000 in unplanned expenses. Thankfully, our diocesan property insurance covered $10,000 of that amount.

As we work to manage these costs, we are also looking ahead to ensure the long-term sustainability of the Newman Center. To do this, we are focused on building an endowment that will support three key areas:

1. Student Ministry programs
2. Building and grounds maintenance
3. Ongoing operational expenses

Thanks to the generosity of Humberto Lopez, who has pledged a $250,000 matching grant, we are making strides in this direction. I ask for your prayerful consideration in offering support at any level you are able.

In addition to grants, we are focusing on three strategies to stabilize our budget:

1. Securing larger donations to help build the endowment.
2. Increasing our weekly collection by $3,000 to comfortably cover costs and prepare for unforeseen expenses.
3. Encouraging both students and non-students to contribute through Venmo, electronic giving, and weekly donations. Even $3 to $5 per student per week can make a significant impact when combined with the faithful contributions of our regular donors.

I recognize that the recent transition of Bishop Weisenburger to Detroit, the pause of the diocesan-wide capital campaign, and the anticipated appointment of a new bishop for Tucson may raise questions about the future of the Newman Center and our needs. The good news is that the Diocese remains committed to the Newman Center project during this time of transition, and management of this project has been entrusted to the Catholic Foundation. While I don't yet have the specifics, I anticipate that once Bishop Weisenburger is installed as Archbishop of Detroit on March 18, and an Apostolic Administrator is appointed for the interim period, a plan for moving forward on various projects, including ours, will be put in place.

I hope this brings some clarity during this time of change. Our pastoral staff, though small, is dedicated and capable. However, we cannot sustain our current level of activity without ensuring the necessary funds to support it.

Since my arrival at Newman in the fall of 2016, my vision has been to establish a substantial endowment for the Newman Center, separate from the generous support provided by the Newman Foundation, the Sustaining Board, occasional diocesan contributions, and weekly collections. This would allow us to reduce the need for constant appeals for financial support as costs rise or unexpected maintenance issues arise.

As we approach the 100th anniversary of the Newman Center next year, we must also begin planning for this significant milestone, which will require additional effort and resources.

If you are able and willing to support this mission, I would love to speak with you about how you can contribute. Your stewardship—however you are called to give—will help to further the mission of the St. Thomas More Newman Center and continue to transform the lives of our students.

Thank you for all that you do for our community.

Very respectfully yours in Christ,

Fr. John Paul Forté, O.P.
Pastor

The Mission of CRS Lenten Rice Bowl

CRS Rice Bowl is the Lenten program of Catholic Relief Services, the official relief and development agency of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Rooted in the history of the Eucharistic Congress, CRS Rice Bowl invites Catholics and faith communities in the United States to encounter God and our global family throughout Lent by practicing the pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Lenten alms donated through CRS Rice Bowl support the work of CRS in more than 120 different countries each year. Twenty five percent of donations to CRS Rice Bowl stay in the local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Since its inception in 1975, CRS Rice Bowl has raised more than $350 million.

Join Your Global Family in Prayer

We can't end global hunger without your help. CRS Rice Bowl's 50th anniversary presents an opportunity to renew your commitment to helping families facing hunger, food insecurity and malnutrition. When you pray, fast and give this Lent, you are making a lifesaving difference.

Start your CRS Rice Bowl journey with us by picking up your rice bowl from the doors of our church.

We acknowledge the People of the Land who have dwelt here since time immemorial and continue to live in this place today: Tohono O'odham, Sobaipuri O'odham, Pascua Yaqui and other Native Americans. We give thanks for the original stewards of this land, our ancestors, our elders and all Indigenous People.
