Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

As we arrive at the Fourth Sunday of Advent and move into the joy of Christmas, the Church once again places before us the holy courage of Mary and the quiet, trusting faith of Joseph. Faced with uncertainty and fear, both chose deep listening. Both allowed God to enter their lives in unexpected ways. Their witness reminds us that God is always present—especially when the path ahead feels unclear.

Christmas celebrates God “bearing down” upon our humanity. In the birth of Christ, God proclaims that light is stronger than darkness, love is greater than fear, and hope is never lost. Even amid human weakness and brokenness, God continues to bring forth faith, hope, and love—creating transformation and new life. As we move toward a New Year, may the light of Christ guide us through the dramas, jealousies, and failures—our own and those of others. May we resist fear-driven, “Herodian-like” responses, and instead embrace the deep-listening obedience of Mary and Joseph. May their faith be the bright star that leads us into 2025 with courage, joy, and peace.

This season also invites us to look ahead with gratitude and hope. In 2026, the St. Thomas More Catholic Newman Center will celebrate 100 years of ministry—a century of forming students, building community, and proclaiming the Gospel on campus. As we prepare for this Centennial, we do so rooted in prayer and united by a simple hope: that we truly May Be One.

Amen! Alleluia!

Message from Bishop-elect Misko

Dear Friends in Christ across the Diocese of Tucson,

Merry Christmas! I write with heartfelt gratitude to God and to each of you. This Christmas will certainly be one of the most memorable for me, as I received the wonderful gift of being named the eighth bishop of the Diocese of Tucson. I very much look forward to arriving to the diocese in February and visiting your parish communities as I begin this journey with you as your new bishop.

To those who joined us in Tucson this past Monday as well as those who joined via live stream from across the diocese, thank you for the very warm welcome! Celebrating the Eucharist in the Cathedral on my first day in the diocese with Bishop Kicanas, some of the local priests of Tucson, and so many of you was a true highlight. It is also deeply meaningful that this has happened at Christmas, a time to celebrate new life in the Christ-child - the Word born once again into our lives - the Word who gives meaning to the words we use each day in our prayers and in our ministry to one another in our cities, towns, and rural places.

I will be on pilgrimage to Rome and the Holy Land this next week and will remember you at each Mass I celebrate. With assurances of my prayers for you and trusting in yours for me,

Bishop-elect James A. Misko

Fr. John Paul's Christmas Message

Dear Newman Community,

Our Newman Community continues to thrive because of your prayers, presence, and generosity. As the year draws to a close, I invite you to consider a special Christmas gift to help strengthen our weekly collections and support our ongoing mission. Your generosity allows us to accompany students as they integrate faith and learning, discover their God-given dignity, and grow into leaders shaped by truth and love. Together, we are helping form young hearts and minds for the Church and the world. Thank you for walking with us. Thank you for believing in Newman.

May the light of Christ fill your homes and hearts this Christmas season and bless you with countless opportunities to "repeat the endless joy." Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

With gratitude and hope,

Fr. John Paul Forté, OP

Annual Catholic Appeal

We want to thank all who made donations for the Annual Catholic Appeal. We also would like to inform everybody that we are still short $14,000 from our goal of $46,640. The Appeal provides financial resources for the ministries and charities that serve individuals and families of our parishes, schools, and communities.

We acknowledge the People of the Land who have dwelt here since time immemorial and continue to live in this place today: Tohono O'odham, Sobaipuri O'odham, Pascua Yaqui and other Native Americans. We give thanks for the original stewards of this land, our ancestors, our elders and all Indigenous People.
