Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you will have no life in me". A powerful statement from this Sunday's Gospel. Corpus Christi - the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ! As the Spirit of the Lord continues to shower down upon each of us.. so, does the call to be united and fed "in Christ". As the Spirit of the Lord continues to shower down upon each of us so, does the call to be united and fed "in Christ". How appropriate it is that the call for unity comes from Christ, who is the redeemer, and feeder of our souls! Christ is our way, truth, and life, the Word spoken, and offered as "balm" for all-that separates us from one another.

In today's Gospel, Jesus invites his followers to "participate" by realizing that they are truly receiving him into their very selves, and that this is what transforms, feeds, and heals. This is the "nourishment" for the mission of being a disciple. It allows us be attentive to the personal needs of our community, to serve Christ's message by being hospitable and feeding others, and "calls us" to continue to share this grace filled 'encounter' as 'food' which changes hearts and minds. God invites us to listen to this call to serve, and to stir it into the living of our daily lives. We have so many fears that can rattle the cages of our personal, global, and spiritual security. How might we better ground ourselves in the promise of God to "be with us always" and to accompany us into the places and spiritual landscapes-that we fear to trod? It is through constant practice and prayerful courage that we continue forward to feed others.

On this Corpus Christi Sunday, may we have the courage to come to the Eucharistic Table and receive what Christ wishes to offer us. The gift of his very self! It is his body broken and given to the world as food for our living. It is his blood poured out for the salvation of the world. It is the gift of God's love that brings life, and direction to the deflated, and purpose to the aimless. May God's Spirit continue to blow across ALL of our worries and fears of Wars in the Ukraine and Russia, and in other parts of our world, Political, Social, Racial Injustice, and the widening gaps in our ability to communicate with one another. It is the gift of God's love, that brings life, and direction to the deflated, as well, as wholeness and purpose to the aimless and to those who feel separated. May God's Spirit continue to blow across ALL of our worries and may they be transformed in and through real encounters with the Spirit of truth and The love of God-in the living Christ among us!

Amen! Alleluia!
